About Me

Hi again! My name is Joana Raimundo, i'm 21 years old and i'm portuguese. I'm a creative person with a passion for design and photography.

I started by taking a course in audiovisuals (with a bit of multimedia to the mix). And right now i'm taking a degree in visual arts and technologies in ESELx in Lisbon.

I'm also a voluntary student monitor in FabLab Benfica where I have already been able to acquire various skills and knowledge.

In digital representation we work in 3D modeling in the blender program. It is where you proceed to create products or characters with their respective backgrounds, textures and adequate lighting.

OBRIGADA!
